Excerpt: .that sword of light whose gleam smote with consternation the haughty foe. Here are other Scripture statements briefly given. The full passages can be readily found. Of our relation to Christ it is said: Whose house are we, and Ye are the temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Christ also promised: The Spirit of truth. dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. He also said: If a man love me. my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. The apostle Paul tells us that the body is for. the Lord, and the Lord for the body. He also appeals to believers to yield themselves unto God, that their members may be instruments of righteousness unto God. And when we find a prayer divinely inspired we have in that form one of the most certain of promises. And Paul prays that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, and that ye may be filled with all the fullness of God. These words are wonderful, but they are surely true. Our hearts are lifted up. These things are promised to us and provided for us. The Father and the Son propose to choose us for their temples, the places of their most holy visitation. Our poor lives are to be the homes where they will come to stay. We are to be the swords of their peaceful conquests; the agents...
