Now he s a beauty! every inch of him. And Mrs. Hastings moved backward a few steps in order to get the full effect. A beauty he was, certainly; others beside his mother would have admitted that. What baby fresh from a bath, and robed in the daintiest and most perfect of baby toilets, with tightly curling rings of brown hair covering the handsome head; with great sparkling, dancing blue eyes, and laughing rosebud mouth; with hands and feet and body strung on invisible wires, and quivering with life and glee, was ever other than a beauty? The whole house was in commotion in honour of the fact that Master Pliny L. Hastings, only son and heir of the great Pliny Hastings, Senior, of Hastings Hall, had laughed and cried, and nodded and winked, through the entire space of three hundred and sixty-five days and nights, and actually reached the first anniversary of his birthday....
