By -

Wilfrid Laurier University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 295 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. The World of Niagara Wine is a transdisciplinary exploration of the Niagara wine industry. In the first section, contributors explore the history and regulation of wine production as well as its contemporary economic significance. The second section focuses on the entrepreneurship behind and the promotion and marketing of Niagara wines. The third introduces readers to the science of grape growing, wine tasting, and wine production, and the final section examines the social and cultural ramifications of Niagaras increasing reliance on grapes and wine as an economic motor for the region. The original research in this book celebrates and critiques the local wine industry and situates it in a complex web of Old World traditions and New World reliance on technology, science, and taste as well as global processes and local sociocultural reactions. Preface by Konrad Ejbich. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
