Outskirts Press. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 140 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Passionately Positive: The Beverly O'Neill Story Leadership Through Inspiration Beverly O'Neill was president of the U. S. Conference of Mayors when Hurricane Katrina struck Louisiana and Mississippi, and led the recovery effort as the nations cities did what they could to help. Beverly O'Neill was the child of an alcoholic. Beverly O'Neill was the first - and so far the only - big city mayor to be reelected as a write-in candidate, winning a third term in Long Beach, California. Beverly O'Neill couldnt bring friends home from school because she never knew whether her father was going to be drinking or just gone. Beverly O'Neill watched the Navy and the aerospace industry leave Long Beach, but managed to revitalize the city as an economically diverse waterfront urban center. Beverly O'Neill started working at age 13, and hasnt quit since. Beverly O'Neill was the first female president of Long Beach City College - in a time when colleges werent supposed to have female presidents. Beverly O'Neill was the child of the mother of Al-Anon, Flossie Lewis. Beverly O'Neill was the first educator to focus on women attempting to return to college after being widowed, divorced or realizing that they had to make it on their own. Beverly O'Neill was her parents right hand as they organized the first Alcoholics Anonymous central office in Southern California. Beverly O'Neill was, and is, Passionately Positive. This is her inspirational story, and the story of the way AA lessons turned into an incredibly effective leadership style that changed the lives of not just thousands, but residents throughout Long Beach and beyond. Written through the perspective of a newspaperman who chronicled her career and the city she loved - Long Beach, California - the...
