My dear sir, I said, I am immensely flattered, but I have never written a play. Then I hastened to ask, What kind of play? for fear the offer might be withdrawn. He replied with sureness and decision. I want a play, he said, with lots of pirates and-no poetry. He stressed this with emphatic gesture. And at least one shooting, he added. It was a slim prescription. He left me to brood upon the matter. The proposal was too flattering to be rejected out of hand.
