Excerpt: .men in the class you referred to a few moments ago--the private accountants in banks--from going along and pursuing an accountancy course for the purpose of obtaining, say, in your State of Delaware a C. P. A. degree, and after they have obtained the C. P. A. degree, if their time in the bank permits them to do so, they may retain their bank positions and at the same time take on certain public clients and thereby augment their revenue. There is nothing in the proposed law for the District to circumscribe the individual who shall be an accountant other than upon the score of efficiency. There is nothing that is intended to hamper those who, during the course of their 87539--22 4 22 BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY FOR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. private employment as accountants, may find an opportunity to become C. P. A....
