Excerpt: .My business, said Orlando, is with Mr. Whitly-- Tell him it is Orlando Somerive, his old friend. The woman then retired from the window as if to speak to somebody, and, presently returning, cried, .l/laster says how he knows no such person--Young squire Orlando is dead a long while ago in parts beyond sea; and you must be an impostor--for twas well known the young man s not alive, and all his family were in mourning for un before they went out of this country. The woman would then have shut the window; but Orlando, rendered half frantic by her last expression, conjured her with so much vehemence to hear him, that she delayed it a moment. He implored her to tell him what she meant by saying that the Somerive family had left the country. Why tis plain, answered she, that you don t...
