Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Household Words, Vol. 14: A Weekly Journal March 3rd, 1840. A long letter to-day from Robert, which surprised and vexed and fluttered me so, mat I have been sadly behind-hand with my work ever since. He writes in worse spirits than last time, and absolutely declares that he is poorer even than when he went to America, and that he has made up his mind to come home to London. How happy I should be at this news, if he only returned to me a prosperous man! As it is, though I love him dearly, I cannot look forward to the meeting him again, disappointed and broken down and poorer than ever, without a feeling almost of death for both of us. I was twenty-six last birthday and he was thirty-three;and there seems less chance now than ever of being married. It is all I can do to keep myself by my needle; and his prospects, since he failed in the small stationery business three years ago, are worse, if possible, than mine. Not that I mind so much for myself; women, in all ways of life, and especially in my dressmaking way, learn, I think, to be more patient than men. What I dread is Robert s despondency, and the hard struggle he will have in this cruel city to get his bread - let alone making money enough to marry me. So little as poor people want to set up in housekeeping and be happy together, it seems hard that they cant get it when they are honest and heart, and willing to work. The clergyman said in his sermon, last Sunday evening,...
