

Walking with the Wounded: The Incredible Story of Britain's Bravest Warriors and the Challenge of a Lifetime (Hardback)

By Mark McCrum

Little, Brown Book Group, United Kingdom, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 162 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In April 2011, four soldiers - each a hero of recent conflicts who suffered devastating injuries in the line of duty - set out on a challenge that even an able-bodied athlete would balk at. A two-hundred mile trek, unsupported, to the North Pole. It was the culmination of a journey that began long before, when two friends decided to mount an expedition that would demonstrate how remarkable our armed forces are and raise funds for the rehabilitation of injured service men and women. Little did they know that their idea would ultimately gain global attention, and royal endorsement. The year-long selection process was more physically and emotionally draining than anyone had anticipated. But by September 2010 the final team was set: the two founders, four wounded soldiers, a polar guide, and patron Prince Harry. Once they ventured inside the arctic circle they had to contend with new challenges. Pulling sleds weighing more than 100kg over vast swathes of ice rubble, pressure ridges and dangerous open water leads ; constant daylight; ground that could literally tear itself apart...
